¹ Scheme responsible for the protection of your deposit.

Your deposit is covered by a statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your credit institution should occur, your deposits would in any case be repaid up to EUR100,000.

² General limit of protection

If a deposit is unavailable because a credit institution is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by the Depositor Compensation Scheme, in accordance with the regulations. This repayment covers a maximum of EUR 100,000 per credit institution. This means that all deposits at the same credit institution are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance, a depositor holds a savings account with EUR 90,000 and a current account with EUR 20,000, he or she will only be repaid EUR 100,000.

In addition to the protection described above, deposits may be protected in some cases up to a maximum of EUR 500,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such deposits become legally transferable. In order to qualify for such higher protection, a deposit in excess of EUR 100,000 must meet any one of the following additional criteria:

(A) it comprises:

- (a) monies deposited in preparation for the purchase of a private residential property by the depositor; or
- (b) monies which represent the proceeds of sale of a private residential property of the depositor; or

(B) it comprises sums paid to the depositor in respect of:

- (a) a separation, divorce or dissolution of their civil union; or
- (b) benefits payable on retirement; or
- (c) a claim for compensation for unfair dismissal; or
- (d) a claim for compensation for redundancy; or
- (e) benefits payable for death or bodily injury; or
- (f) a claim for compensation for wrongful conviction.

More information can be obtained under www.compensationschemes.org.mt

³ Limit of protection for joint accounts

In case of joint accounts, the limit of EUR 100,000 applies to each depositor.

However, deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of EUR 100,000.
